I was there during my tour. The hosts very welcoming and helpful. They have been associated with cycling for years. They had an MTB team and they ran marathons. They will operate the PK. There is a kitchen on site, but no restaurant. There is a restaurant and pizzeria nearby at the Gold Mine. A menu will be available at PK and the staff will order and deliver whatever they want. Pesto pasta or something will be available at night. There is a garage on site with a bike service stand and proper tools etc.
